BURLEY
CORNELIUS

N. Pearson Gandy
Historic Kingston, March, 1975

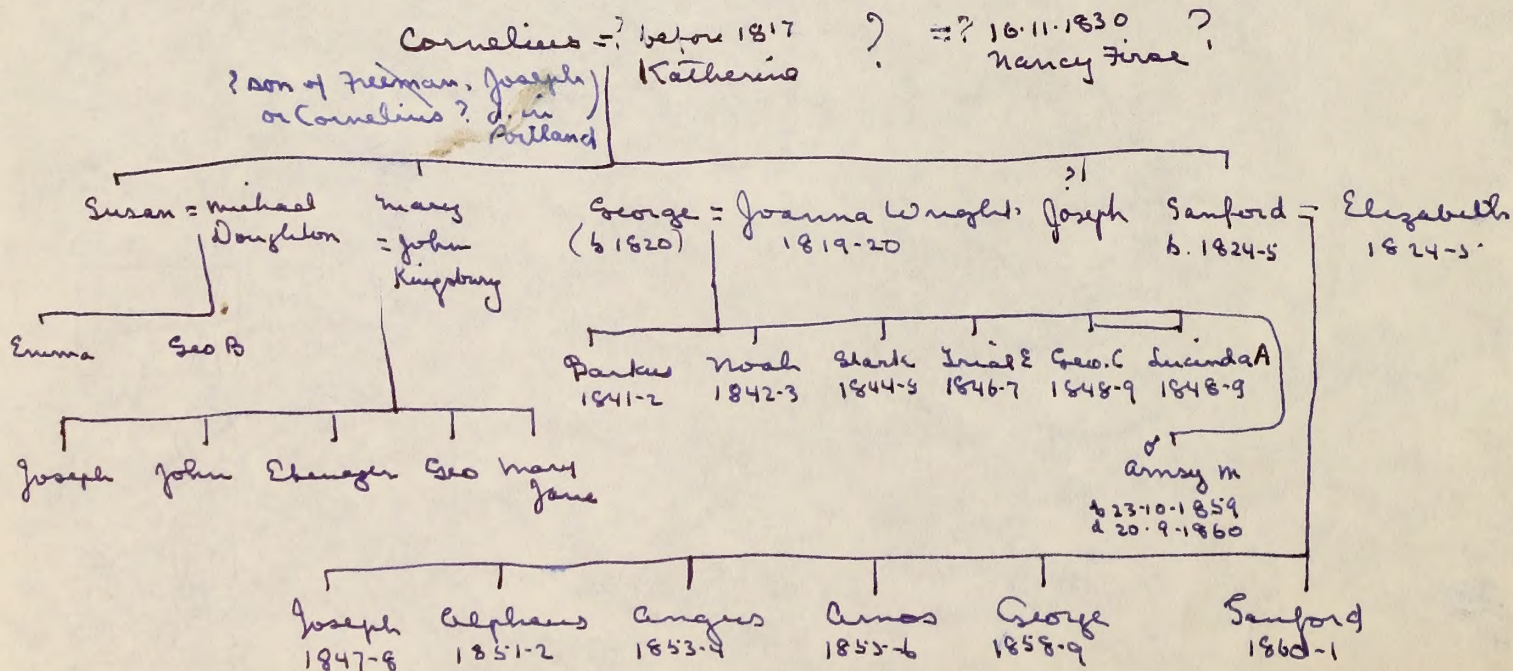

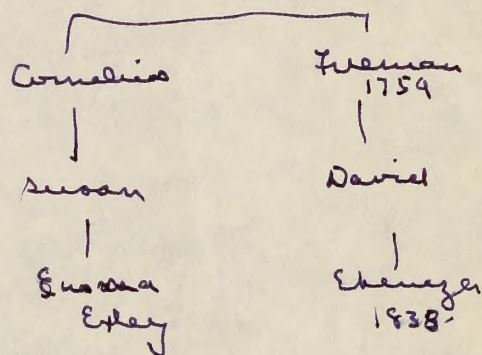

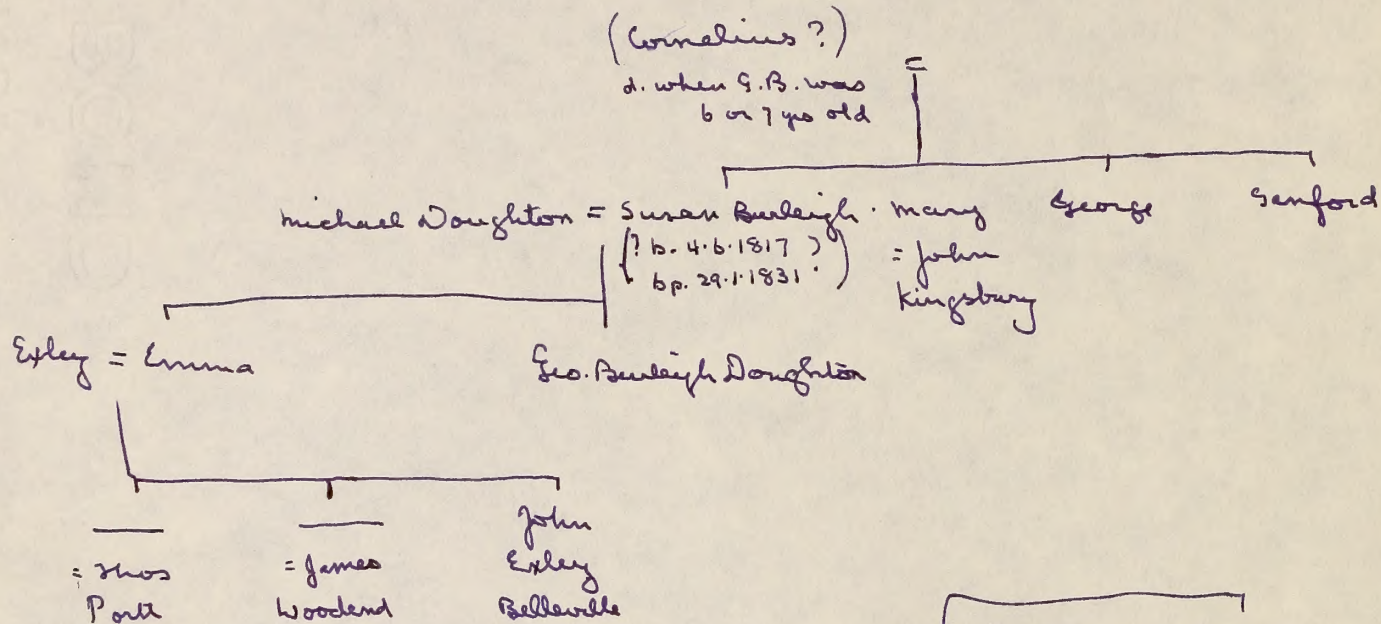

Now the original nominee for one of the Robinson lots was Cornelius Burley who had moved to the United States. In 1838, 1839 his son Abner tried to claim this lot in Pickering Township as heir at law. Peter Robinson, however, got in touch with Abner's uncle, Joseph Burley of Ernesttown, who signed an affidavit stating that his brother Cornelius had transferred the lot to him, when he left the country, and that he had sold it to Christopher Robinson who had paid him in full. This was enough to disallow Abner Burley's claims. - - - - -
